As we understand Mr. Cockrill, the machinery necessary to do this work has already been invented and is in course of construction, and we further understand him to assert that the success of this machinery sectrain. His plan is to pull up the cotton stakes in October and November, when the boils are matured and opening, and hauled to a proper building or shed. At this juncture the machiners of which there are three, come into play. The first is a clipping machine, which cuts off the boils. The second machine is a hull separator; and takes the cotton from the boils. their husbands Dr Bird, as had Governor Clarke, lost his male representatives but had two daughters. One of these was married to the great judge, L. Q. C. Lamar, and was one of the remarkably intellectual women of Georgia. She and her coursin, Nancy Clarke, did not share in the ill feelings which divided their parents, and it was their good office to reconcile these differences upon the eve of the marriage of Miss Clarke. She was marrying the younger brother of Duncan G. Campie I, who-e wife was her mother s sister. Miss Clarke was the family spride; she was an only child, and the reunion of all the family surviving was very destrable to her. With her cousin (Mrs. Lamar) this was effected, and was never afterwards disturbed

Mrs Bird had assisted her sister and niece to prepare for the wedding, and was praggiste everywhere.

The rush is wonderful. The reduction in prices made on goods at Dougherty's is causing a great sensation. I heard one lady say that she bought to day at Dougherty's, the exact goods for 15c per yard that he had formerly sold for 20c. There is certainly a magic about his manner of business, for his store is always througed with customers. It is indeed wonderful'to see the crowds. It will pay you to call.

Headache.

My daughter, seventeen years of age, has been afflicted with a most distressing pain in the head which attacked her with great violence at intervals of one to three weeks. I have tried the best medical skill for two years, but all in vain. A friend hearing of her condition presented her with a bottle of your Neurotic, and, to my astonishment, the years first application gave perfect relief of your Neurotic, and, to my astonishment the very first application gave perfect relie in a few minutes, and there seems to be norobability of a return of the attack. look upon it as the greatest remedy for pain that has ever been given to sufferin humanity, and I write this in the hope tha some afflicted fellow being may be induced to try it.
